The 5th Hong Kong International Music Festival Message from Andrew Heyn British Consulate in Hong Kong and Macau

It gives me great pleasure to once again extend my warmest congratulations on the occasion of the 5th Hong Kong International Music Festival (HKIMF).

The festival brings performers and artists together from all over the world and brings pleasure to audiences of all ages and backgrounds. I know from personal experience that putting together an international cultural event is a Herculean task.

My congratulations and admiration goes to all those at the HKIMF who have pulled together this year's wonderful programme.

Congratulatory Message for the 5th Hong Kong International Music Festival

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate the Hong Kong International Music Festival on organizing the event for the 5th time this year. After having its first edition only recently in 2013, the Hong Kong International Music Festival has already managed to establish itself as one of the key events in the world music scene. Hong Kong has developed into one of the most important cultural hubs in Asia and the world, where countless cultural exchange activities take place. For that reason Hong Kong is a perfect location for such a large scale music festival.

2017, more than 4,000 of nearly 80,000 contestants from all over the world came to Hong Kong to participate in the finals and perform in front of the Festival's jury. I am very happy to see that in the past years the German clarinet musician Prof. Jörg Lieser was part of this jury and that he will also participate again in 2018, thereby further strengthening the cultural exchange between Germany and Hong Kong.

I would also like to thank the whole team of the Hong Kong International Music Festival for their steadfast and vigorous efforts in organizing the event. Furthermore, I would like to thank the Grandmaster Orchestral Music Society, the Hong Kong Conservatory of Music, and the Commission on Youth of the Home Affairs Bureau for making this event possible.

May the 5th Hong Kong International Music Festival become again a great success! All the best wishes to the organizers and – most importantly – to the contestants!
